

II Samuel 19:1-43

Date _____

1. ____ And the _____ that day was [turned] into _____ unto all the people: for the _____ heard say that day how the _____ was grieved for his son.
2. ____ But the king covered his _____, and the king cried with a loud _____, O my son Absalom, O _____, my _____, my son!
3. ____ Then the king arose, and sat in the _____. And they _____ unto all the people, saying, Behold, the _____ doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Israel had _____ every man to his _____.
4. ____ And he _____ the heart of all the men of _____, even as [the heart of] one man; so that they sent [this word] unto the king, _____ thou, and all thy _____.
5. ____ For thy servant doth _____ that I have _____: therefore, behold, I am come the _____ this day of all the house of _____ to go down to meet my lord the king.
6. ____ And he hath _____ thy servant unto my _____ the king; but my lord the king [is] as an _____ of God: do therefore [what is] _____ in thine eyes.
7. ____ And the king said unto him, Why _____ thou any more of thy _____? I have said, Thou and _____ divide the _____.
8. ____ I [am] this day _____ years old: [and] can I discern between _____ and evil? can thy servant taste what I _____ or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of _____ men and singing _____? wherefore then should thy _____ be yet a burden unto my lord the king?
9. ____ Thy _____ will go a little way over _____ with the king: and why should the king _____ it me with such a _____?
10. ____ And the men of Israel answered the men of _____, and said, We have _____ parts in the king, and we have also more [right] in _____ than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our _____ should not be first had in _____ back our _____? And the words of the men of Judah were _____ than the _____ of the men of Israel.