

II Samuel 9:1-13

Date _____

1. ___ And David said, Is there yet _____ that is left of the _____ of Saul, that I may _____ him _____ for _____ sake?
2. ___ And [there was] of the _____ of Saul a servant whose name [was] _____ . And when they had _____ him unto David, the _____ said unto him, [Art] thou Ziba? And he said, Thy _____ [is he].
3. ___ And the king said, [Is] there not yet any of the house of _____, that I may shew the _____ of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a _____, [which is] _____ on [his] _____ .
4. ___ And David said unto him, _____ not: for I will surely _____ thee kindness for Jonathan thy _____ sake, and will _____ thee all the _____ of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat _____ at my table _____ .
5. ___ And he _____ himself, and said, What [is] thy _____, that thou shouldest _____ upon such a dead _____ as I [am]?
6. ___ Then the _____ called to _____, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy _____ son all that _____ to Saul and to all his _____ .
7. ___ Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall _____ the _____ for him, and thou shalt bring in [the fruits], that thy master's son may have _____ to eat: but _____ thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had _____ sons and _____ servants.
8. ___ Then said Ziba unto the _____, According to all that my _____ the king hath _____ his servant, so shall thy _____ do. As for Mephibosheth, [said the king], he shall eat at my _____, as one of the king's _____ .
9. ___ And Mephibosheth had a _____ son, whose name [was] _____ . And all that _____ in the house of Ziba [were] _____ unto Mephibosheth.
10. ___ So Mephibosheth _____ in Jerusalem: for he did _____ continually at the king's _____; and was lame on both his _____ .