Being human, we often have disagreements with others. If left unattended, these disagreements can easily grow into monumental dissensions that tear family and friends asunder. The resulting feuds are often carried for generations with the original cause forgotten, but the pain lingering.

If you have outstanding arguments with others, follow the advice of Paul in Ephesians 4:26. In this passage he writes “Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath.” Even though there are situations and circumstances that cause anger, we are not to sin in our anger. We also have the responsibility to not let the sun go down upon our wrath.

Before you lay down to sleep tonight, call up that friend or neighbor, and offer an unconditional apology. You’ll sleep better, and so will they.

her husband who was at work one day. As he said, “Hello,” his wife interrupted with an excited declaration, “Honey, I won the Lottery. Hurry home and pack your clothes!” The husband responded, “Fantastic! Where are we going? What clothes do you want me to pack?” To which his wife responded, “All of them, I want you out of the house by 6:00 p.m.!”

How money can change things. While money has no intrinsic value, the apostle Paul warned us that the “love of money is the root of all evil.” Concerning money, heed the following advice from the apostle Paul—

If you don’t have riches:

- Learn to be content with what you have.
- Beware of the evils that surround the desire to be rich.
- Instead of pursuing money, pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.

If you have riches:

- Don’t be haughty.
- Don’t trust in your riches.
- Be rich in good works; ready and willing to share.

<sup>8</sup>And having food and raiment let us be therewith content . <sup>9</sup>But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and [into] many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. <sup>10</sup>For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

Last Week's Answer— Rose up upon an heap (Joshua 3:15, 16)

—Many are traveling during the summer months, and many are still on the road this week. Keep in mind when you are away, you can hear our services live or recorded on any computer, smart phone, or tablet. Certainly attended services if at all possible where you may be but if you are not in a service during the times of ours, you can easily listen in.

—God's Plan of Salvation—

1. Hear the Gospel (Romans 10:14)
2. Believe on the Lord and His Word (Mark 16:16; John 8:24)
3. Repent of your sins (Luke 13:3,5; Acts 17:30)
4. Confess Christ (Matthew 10:32,33; Luke 12:8; Romans 10:9)
5. Be baptized (immersed in water) for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38; Mark 16:16; Galatians 3:27; I Peter 3:21)
6. Live a faithful, dedicated life (Revelation 2:10; II Peter 1:5-10)
