Being human, we often have disagreements with others. If left unattended, these disagreements can easily grow into monumental dissensions that tear family and friends asunder. The resulting feuds are often carried for generations with the original cause forgotten, but the pain lingering.

If you have outstanding arguments with others, follow the advice of Paul in Ephesians 4:26. In this passage he writes “Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath.” Even though there are situations and circumstances that cause anger, we are not to sin in our anger. We also have the responsibility to not let the sun go down upon our wrath.

Before you lay down to sleep tonight, call up that friend or neighbor, and offer an unconditional apology. You’ll sleep better, and so will they.

Sunday 9 AM & 6 PM — Wednesday 6 PM

While back, I heard about a woman who excitedly called her husband who was at work one day. As he said, “Hello,” his wife interrupted with an excited declaration, “Honey, I won the Lottery. Hurry home and pack your clothes!” The husband responded, “Fantastic! Where are we going? What clothes do you want me to pack?” To which his wife responded, “All of them, I want you out of the house by 6:00 p.m.!”

How money can change things. While money has no intrinsic value, the apostle Paul warned us that the “love of money is the root of all evil.” Concerning money, heed the following advice from the apostle Paul—

If you don’t have riches:

- Learn to be content with what you have.
- Beware of the evils that surround the desire to be rich.
- Instead of pursuing money, pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.

If you have riches:

- Don’t be haughty.
- Don’t trust in your riches.
- Be rich in good works; ready and willing to share.

<sup>8</sup>And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. <sup>9</sup>But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and [into] many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. <sup>10</sup>For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

—I Timothy 6:8-10

Watch Your Step

A man was walking down a hill in the woods when he stepped on a small twig. The twig rolled and he fell down. As he picked himself up and went on his way, he thought, “If that had been a big log, I would have seen it and climbed over it. There would have been less danger of falling, for I would have been aware of the danger.” The fact that the twig was small was what made it dangerous.

In our spiritual pathway, the devil places “little” temptations to defeat us. His little traps or obstructions are often more effective than the big ones, partly because if people do notice them they may think they are too small to make a difference. “Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.” I Corinthians 10:12
