Am I Worthy?

Many times in our lives we must call upon the talents of those trained in fields other than our own. Whether it is a carpenter or a doctor, when we need the talents of others, we expect them to know their profession well. They should be worthy of the name they wear.

If we had to tell a carpenter how to use a hammer or tell a doctor the first procedures to take in an examination, we would probably go elsewhere. They would not be worthy of the name they wear.

Do I wear the name, "Christian?" If so, am I worthy of that name? Do I live my life in such a way that Christ and Christianity are exemplified? Would others be surprised upon hearing that I am a Christian?

Note the words of II Timothy 2:19, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

During the next few weeks millions of young people across the nation will be heading to learning institutions to further their scholastic careers. Some are seasoned veterans with years of experience behind them while others will experience organized education for the first time. Whether kindergarten or graduate school, they all have one thing in common— they are preparing themselves to function efficiently in society.

This is a very important step in one's life— so important that it is required by law until one obtains a certain age. How much more important is it to educate ourselves spiritually? We spend much time and money on our secular education, while so often forgetting about our spiritual education.

Our education here is valuable, but how much more precious is knowledge that will never be outdated? Educate for eternity.

A young boy was trying to lift his rather large bicycle after it had fallen over but was having little success. His father noticed the struggle and went outside. He asked his son, "Are you using all your strength?" The son replied that he was. The father responded, "No you're not, you haven't asked me to help."

So often Christians try to face the problems of life without turning to the Lord for help. We are told in I Peter 5:6,7, "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you."❖
