Am I Worthy?

Many times in our lives we must call upon the talents of those trained in fields other than our own. Whether it is a carpenter or a doctor, when we need the talents of others, we expect them to know their profession well. They should be worthy of the name they wear.

If we had to tell a carpenter how to use a hammer or tell a doctor the first procedures to take in an examination, we would probably go elsewhere. They would not be worthy of the name they wear.

Do I wear the name, “Christian?” If so, am I worthy of that name? Do I live my life in such a way that Christ and Christianity are exemplified? Would others be surprised upon hearing that I am a Christian?

Note the words of II Timothy 2:19, “Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.”

A gallon holds 128 ounces. If one put 138 ounces into a one gallon container, ten ounces will spill over the side. This is a simple idea to grasp. I believe the same concept is part of the reason attendance suffers, especially on Sunday and Wednesday evening. Not only attendance, but participation in the work of the church is certainly not engaged in as it should be.

In our society we have more than enough material possessions and activities with which to fill our time— so many that we are unable to contain them in the 168 hours we have each week. Just as with the gallon container, if we try to fill our week with more than 168 hours, some other activity must be sacrificed. How often is it that one's service to the Lord is that which is sacrificed?

Let us fill our lives with more activities for the Lord. When we do, we will naturally rid ourselves of things that steal our time and service from the Lord.

—Continue to remember Jean Coffey, Sally Marshall, Jewell Watkins, Jimmy Terry, Vicki McDaniel and Alroy & Lois McDaniel.

—The Church's website has been up one year this past week. It's changed much since the first days it was online but has settled into regular and consistent content.

We post the weekly bulletin as well as keep an archive of the bulletin. You can tune in via computer or cell phone and listen to the audio of our services live. I am recording chapters weekly from the Bible and posting them for download or streaming play as mp3 files which will play on any computer, portable music device, or cell phone.

We have had hundreds of visitors over the past year from all over the U. S. and many other countries. You can see on the world map when you log on where people are located that have been connecting.

With time we may add additional content such as the Wednesday night lessons and access to the recorded audio of our services.

The web site costs us $94 per year and is no doubt one of the most effective means of evangelism we have.

The address to the web site is on the front page of the bulletin.
