Am I Worthy?

Many times in our lives we must call upon the talents of those trained in fields other than our own. Whether it is a carpenter or a doctor, when we need the talents of others, we expect them to know their profession well. They should be worthy of the name they wear.

If we had to tell a carpenter how to use a hammer or tell a doctor the first procedures to take in an examination, we would probably go elsewhere. They would not be worthy of the name they wear.

Do I wear the name, “Christian?” If so, am I worthy of that name? Do I live my life in such a way that Christ and Christianity are exemplified? Would others be surprised upon hearing that I am a Christian?

Sunday 9 AM & 6 PM — Wednesday 6 PM

Note the words of II Timothy 2:19, “Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.”

—Marty Edwards ❖

A gallon holds 128 ounces. If one put 138 ounces into a one gallon container, ten ounces will spill over the side. This is a simple idea to grasp. I believe the same concept is part of the reason attendance suffers, especially on Sunday and Wednesday evening. Not only attendance, but participation in the work of the church is certainly not engaged in as it should be.

In our society we have more than enough material possessions and activities with which to fill our time— so many that we are unable to contain them in the 168 hours we have each week. Just as with the gallon container, if we try to fill our week with more than 168 hours, some other activity must be sacrificed. How often is it that one's service to the Lord is that which is sacrificed?

Let us fill our lives with more activities for the Lord. When we do, we will naturally rid ourselves of things that steal our time and service from the Lord.

—The Church’s new website has been up five years this past week. It’s changed much since the first days it was online but has settled into regular and consistent content. (The first website for the Munfordville congregation came online twenty years ago, in 1995, and we were one of the very first congregations of the Church to have a website. The best I could determine at the time there were only twelve other congregations online when we went online.)

We post the weekly bulletin as well as keep an archive of the bulletins and our Wednesday evening Bible lessons.

You can tune in via computer or cell phone and listen to the audio of our services live. There is a recorded mp3 file for each chapter of the Bible stored on the web site. These will play on any computer, tablet, or cell phone. They can be freely downloaded and copied. Each service is recorded and stored on YouTube. If you would like, an mp3 with the audio of any service can be emailed to you as well.

We have had thousands of visitors over the past five years from all over the U. S. and many other countries. You can see on the world map when you log on where people are located that have been connecting. Dozens log in every day to hear the Bible being read.

Bible Quiz

God will cause what to shine upon us?

Last Week’s Answer— In the days of our youth (Ecclesiastes 12:1)

The web site costs us $133 per year (less than 37¢ per day) and is no doubt one of the most effective means of evangelism we have. We could not mail one letter for that, yet we are able to reach all corners of the world for that 37¢ per day. ❖
