Am I Worthy?

Many times in our lives we must call upon the talents of those trained in fields other than our own. Whether it is a carpenter or a doctor, when we need the talents of others, we expect them to know their profession well. They should be worthy of the name they wear.

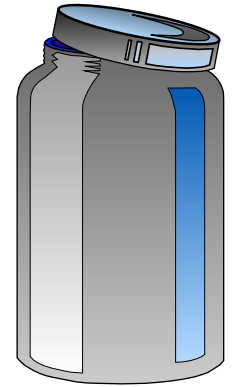

If we had to tell a carpenter how to use a hammer or tell a doctor the first procedures to take in an examination, we would probably go elsewhere. They would not be worthy of the name they wear.

Do I wear the name, "Christian?" If so, am I worthy of that name? Do I live my life in such a way that Christ and Christianity are exemplified? Would others be surprised upon hearing that I am a Christian?

Note the words of II Timothy 2:19, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

A gallon holds 128 ounces. If one put 138 ounces into a one gallon container, ten ounces will spill over the side. This is a simple idea to grasp. I believe the same concept is part of the reason attendance suffers, especially on Sunday and Wednesday evening. Not only attendance, but participation in the work of the church is certainly not engaged in as it should be.

In our society we have more than enough material possessions and activities with which to fill our time—so many that we are unable to contain them in the 168 hours we have each week. Just as with the gallon container, if we try to fill our week with more than 168 hours, some other activity must be sacrificed. How often is it that one's service to the Lord is that which is sacrificed?

Let us fill our lives with more activities for the Lord. When we do, we will naturally rid ourselves of things that steal our time and service from the Lord.

—The Church's website has been up since 1995 but two years ago this past week it underwent a major design change and started hosting all the content you now see. It's changed much since the first days it was online but has settled into regular and consistent content.

We post the weekly bulletin as well as keep an archive of the bulletin. You can tune in via computer or cell phone and listen to the audio of our services live. The entire Bible in mp3 files has been recorded and can be played or downloaded by chapter. They will play on any computer, portable music device, or cell phone. You can also just log on and hear the Bible being read. It's read in it's entirety three times per week approximately. It plays 24 hours per day and takes 68 hours to play the entire Bible.

You can also access a copy of our Wednesday lessons and the audio archives of each service. If you cannot attend or cannot listen live, the services are recorded and easily accessible for later listening. These are stored indefinitely and even years later can be accessed.

We have had hundreds of visitors over the past year from all over the U. S. and many other countries. You can see on the world map when you log on where people are located that have been connecting.

The web site will cost us $117.86 for the next year which is 32.3 cents per day, and is no doubt one of the most effective means of evangelism we have.

The address to the web site in on the front page of the bulletin.

Today, Ruby and I are at the Broadway Church of Christ in Campbellsville. I will be giving a talk during the Bible class regarding the work we do here via the Internet and showing them the ease which such can be set up to spread the Gospel. At 10:00 I'll be giving a regular lesson. If you cannot attend Munfordville, my talk(s) at Campbellsville will be broadcast live and archived. You can access them by clicking on the "LIVE Broadcasts" link on our web site. The service at Munfordville will be broadcast live to our YouTube page and archived there.

In the 1970s I attended the congregation in Campbellsville often. It was then known as the Spurlington Road Church of Christ. I went once a month for some time to a singing school and have spoken there quite a few times. I attended Bible camp in Henderson, TN a few times with the group from there. I have many fond memories of the people and Church at Campbellsville and it's comforting to still find them faithful and strong in the LORD. —Marty❖
