One of the most common mistakes we make is always looking forward to something, and never truly enjoying our present situation in life. We can hardly wait until we turn sixteen, then graduation, marriage, children, grandchildren, retirement, and so forth, until death overtakes us. We are so busy looking forward to the destination, that we miss out on the joy of the journey.

Life is a lot like a train voyage. If you sleep all the way to your destination, you're going to miss a lot of beautiful scenery along the way. Enjoy the journey, for the end will come swiftly.

Sunday 9 AM & 6 PM — Wednesday 6 PM

Have you heard about the man and his grandson who went on a journey, walking and leading a donkey? They soon met a passer-by who said, "How foolish for both of you to be walking. One should be riding the donkey." So the man put his grandson on the animal. The next person they met frowned and said, "How dreadful for a strong boy to be riding while an old man walks." So the boy climbed off the donkey and his grandfather climbed on it. The next traveler they met further down the road said, "I just can't believe a grown man would ride and make a poor little boy walk." So the man pulled the little boy up and they rode together.

This seemed to be the solution, until they met the next fellow who cried out, "I never thought I would see anything so cruel in all my life— two intelligent human beings riding on a poor defenseless donkey." Down the road a piece, they met a couple of men traveling together. When they passed, one man said to the other, "Did you ever see two people carrying a donkey before?"

What's the point? If you know what's right to do then do it— regardless of what others may say. Stand on your own convictions and make your own decisions according to the Bible.

—Don't forget to check our website which is listed on the front of the bulletin. We are posting the weekly bulletin, our Wednesday night lessons, and streaming live audio of our services. I am also currently in the process of reading some chapters of the Bible each week and posting them on the site as audio that can be listened on the site or downloaded and played later.
