During this time of year, collegiate basketball teams are vying for the title of National Champion. Last week there were 68 teams in the national tournament and all had hopes of being the national champion. By the final night of the tournament, one team will remain to claim the title. Only one can win the title, and with each game played, one more team has its hopes dashed. Although being eliminated from the tournament can be quite disappointing, the school will have another opportunity for the title the following year.

If we are “eliminated” from Heaven by delaying our obedience until it’s too late, there will be no “next year.” There will be nothing to anticipate but an eternity of suffering, separation from saved loved ones, and never seeing the face of God.

13:12, “The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.”
13:13, “Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.”
13:14, “Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.”
14:19, “Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.”

It Only Takes a Minute To . . .

—stop and say a few words to the newcomer, who you have passed by, with a quick “hello.”

—draw a person, who is obviously feeling like an outsider, into a group discussion.

—make the introduction, that may not be necessary, but that will demonstrate friendliness.

—write a note to a person who is ill, or who has lost a member of the family.

—really listen to what a child is earnestly telling you.

—take the trouble to pass along the good things that you know about others.

—build up a person who is feeling low, or seems to be worried or discouraged.

—pick up the phone and just let someone know you were thinking about them.

Last Week's Answer— Rock (Psalm 61:2)

—If you can't attend or are traveling, you can easily hear our services via YouTube or TuneIn Radio. TuneIn is probably the easiest since it takes very little data and be listened to on most cell phones and very slow Internet connections.

—God's Plan of Salvation—

1. Hear the Gospel (Romans 10:14)
2. Believe on the Lord and His Word (Mark 16:16; John 8:24)
3. Repent of your sins (Luke 13:3,5; Acts 17:30)
4. Confess Christ (Matthew 10:32,33; Luke 12:8; Romans 10:9)
5. Be baptized (immersed in water) for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38; Mark 16:16; Galatians 3:27; I Peter 3:21)
6. Live a faithful, dedicated life (Revelation 2:10; II Peter 1:5-10)
