One of the last acts most of us do before leaving the house each morning is to take one final look in the mirror. We usually look and see if we need to make any last-minute adjustments to our hair, clothing, etc. If we are displeased with the reflection that comes back, we then proceed to make the necessary changes. Even though we may not always like what we see in the mirror, the mirror will not lie for us. It would be an injustice if it did.

We need to see what we really look like so proper changes can be made.

Likewise, the Bible is our spiritual mirror. Upon examining its teachings, we may see something amiss in our lives. The Bible will not lie. It may cause us to see things in our lives we don't particularly want to see, but if they are there, we need to see them and make the necessary adjustments.

Use the spiritual mirror, the Bible, every day to examine your spiritual appearance. Only you can make the changes if you are displeased with the reflection.

James 1:23-24, “<sup>23</sup>For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass : <sup>24</sup>For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.”

Sunday 9 AM & 6 PM — Wednesday 6 PM

What keeps a sick person going when they do not feel like continuing?

—The hope of recovery

What keeps an impoverished family from despair?

—The hope of better times

What keeps an athlete performing with great pain?

—The hope of victory

What keeps a student going year after year?

—The hope of graduation

What keeps us from despair during a storm?

—The hope of calm

What keeps us going when we are exhausted?

—The hope of rest

What keeps our fears at bay during darkness?

—The hope of light

What keeps gloom from overwhelming a lonesome shut-in?

—The hope of a visitor

What keeps us going after the death of a loved one?

—The hope of the resurrection

What keeps and sustains our entire being all our lives?

—The hope of Heaven and everlasting life

The writer of Hebrews states in Hebrews 6:18-19, “That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast. . .” We probably never realize how much we utilize hope. Every day we are using hope as we go about our daily lives. Without it, there would be no reason to continue in our endeavors. It is the anchor of the soul.

Unlike the world, our hope is not based upon silver and gold, fame, or any other temporal pleasures. Our hope is in Jesus Christ. Paul wrote in I Timothy 1:1, “Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope.”

News

—Continue to remember Sally Marshall, Jewell Watkins, Jimmy Terry, Audrey Terry, Jean Coffey, Lillian Riffle and Shirley Edwards. Allen Terry is being moved to Jewish Hospital in Louisville for open heart surgery. Allen Riffle had surgery in New Mexico this past Thursday on his foot. His wife, Breanna, is having a lot of issues with allergies on her skin.

—Don't forget that you can find the current Wednesday night lesson posted on the Church's web site as well as the current bulletin and all the bulletins for the past few years. There is also an archive of the audio of services as well as recordings of the Bible.

—Tonight we will continue our look at Revelation with chapter 7.

Six P's of Bible Study

Bible study is vitally important. Man's usefulness in life as well as his happiness in eternity demands an understanding and an obedience to the Word of God. As we consider our study of the Scriptures, we must do it in the following ways:

1. Periodically — Read on a regular schedule. (Acts 17:11)
2. Purposefully — Study with a definite plan in mind. (II Timothy 2:15)
3. Pensively — Read reflectively and thoughtfully. (Psalm 119:97)
4. Persistently — Keep at it. Don't grow discouraged. (I Peter 2:2)
5. Prayerfully — If any lacks wisdom, let him ask of God. (James 1:5)
6. Properly — God's word must be rightly divided, or handled accurately. (II Timothy 2:15)
